Wade Stamp hits 2 homers

HALIBURTON TAKES 2 GAME LEAD IN TRI COUNTY PLAY-OFFS

Fighting a high fever and a bad flu bug, Haliburton Legion pitcher, Craig Stamp picked right up where he left off in the Semi-finals against Minden Merchants, by fanning 28 batters in the first two games of the Tri County Finals against the Bobcaygeon Blue Jays.

Legion-5 Blue Jays-1

Playing before a very disappointing Haliburton crowd on Thursday evening, the Legion downed the 1977 League Champions, 5-1. This followed on the heels of a 3-0 victory in the opener of the Play-off Championship on Tuesday evening in Bobcaygeon. The Finals are a best three of five series with the third game in Bobcaygeon on Friday evening. The fourth if necessary will be in Haliburton on Tuesday evening at 8:15 p.m. and the fifth, if necessary back in Bobcaygeon on Thursday evening at 8:30 p.m. Bobcaygeon got on the scoreboard early in the game played in Haliburton Thursday evening, when winning pitcher, Craig Stamp walked two batters and losing pitcher, Don Thibideau singled to centre. However, this was all that the Blue Jays were to get on this evening. In the bottom of the 2nd inning, Bob Johnson bounced the first pitch from Thibideau off the left centre field fence for a double and then scored on a two base throwing error. In the bottom of the third Wade Stamp blasted Thibideau's first pitch over the centre field fence to give the Legion all they needed in the way of runs in this game. In the sixth, Haliburton blew the game open when Darrell Stamp doubled and scored on a triple by Dwight Sisson down the left field line. Sisson was left at third, however, when Kevin Sisson popped to second and Blair Pierce grounded to the pitcher. Haliburton added their fifth run in the 7th when Bob Johnson got his second consecutive double of the night. Bernie Nichols sacrificed him to third with a perfect bunt and Craig Stamp knocked him in with a single to centre. Craig Stamp ended the game with 13 strikeouts, two hits and four walks. Thibideau gave up five runs on nine hits, walked two and hit two batters.

Legion-3 Blue Jays-0

On Tuesday evening in Bob-caygeon in the opener of this final series for the Play-off Trophy, Craig Stamp struck out 15 Bobcaygeon batters on the way to Haliburton's 3-0 win.

Bernie Nichols got things going early for Haliburton, singling in the first inning and scored on hits by Derrell Stamp and Roger Bain. Nichols put Haliburton up 2-0 in the third when he again singled and scored on an error and a hit by Craig Stamp. Haliburton got their final run on a towering homer off the bat of Wade Stamp in the fifth inning.

Craig Stamp yielded just three hits, and walked four on his way to the victory. John Kimble of the Blue Jays took the loss.

Progress Invitational attracting top County golfers

The 2nd annual Minden Progress Invitational 18-Hole Golf tournament is once again attracting the County's finer golfers. Ken Rosenberg, defending champion from 1976, threw his hat in the ring this week and is the odds-on-favorite to repeat. However, he will have tough going from the likes of Dave Stevens of Minden, Kirk Hewitt of Minden, and Syd Cooper of West Gullford and Bob Woodcock of Haliburton. Other top names to date are Bill Payne of Minden, Cliff Burke of Minden, Jack Snell and Royce Miller, also of Minden.

The tournament gets underway at PineStone Inn and Country Club on Sunday, Sept. 18th at 9 a.m. Anyone wishing to enter this tournament are asked to send a $17.00 cheque to tournament organizer, Cliff Burke, Box 363, Minden, Ontario. The tournament is restricted to Haliburton County residents only.

Firefighter caught off base

300 people jammed the new Stanhope Ball Park last Thursday evening to watch a hilarious benefit softball game between the Carnarvon Stan Hope Ladies and the

when he tried to stretch a single into a home run. Two of Roberta's firefighter friends appear on scene too late to aid her run-scoring attempt.

On Thursday evening in Stanhope Councillor Elgin Stoffer officially opened the new Stanhope Ball Park prior to a benefit game played between the Stanhope Firefighters and the Carnarvon Stan Hope Ladies.

Fresh from their play-off championship victory in three straight games over Gooderham on Tuesday evening, the Stan Hope gals had a ball clowning with the firefighters, who appeared on the field dressed in various female attire, to the delight of more than 300 softball fans.

1977 Ontario Truck Rodeo Championship results

Two new 'Kings of the Road' were crowned at the 31st running of the Ontario Truck Rodeo Championships held on August 20 at the Bramalea City Centre, Bramalea. Throughout the day's competitions some 4,000 spectators watched 83 of Ontario's top truck and transport drivers manoeuvre through an intricate course which called for skill unparalleled by other motorists. The Straight Truck title and the Ontario Safety League trophy went to TOM CAMPBELL, Mississauga, employed by Imperial Oil Ltd. 38 years of age, married with two children, Campbell was an Air Force wireless operator before entering the trucking business. During the past 8 years he has driven 200,000 accident-free miles.

38 year old TOM WILLIAMS, a native of Niagara Falls, driving for Overland Western Ltd., captured the OTA trophy for the 4-axle Tractor-Trailer championship. Married with three children, Williams has amassed a 'no-accident' record of close to 1 1/2 million-miles in his 18 years of truck and passenger car driving. A member of the Niagara Regional Police Auxiliary, he was a local police chief in Quebec at 24.

37-year old GLEN CAMPBELL of Mississauga was the only repeat winner. A driver for Carling O'Keefe's, he took the Transportation Safety Award 5-axle Tractor-Trailer trophy. Married with three children, Campbell has driven close to 600,000 accident-free miles during the past ten years. He is a Malton Minor Hockey League coach. Not related to Tom, Glen Campbell also was awarded the Grand Champion trophy presented by the Canadian National Exhibition Association.

The three Ontario titlists pit their skills against drivers from coast to coast at the Canadian Truck Rodeo Championships in Calgary on September 10.

A new award presented for the first time in truck rodeo competition was the Congeniality Trophy sponsored by the Etobicoke Centre Jaycees. This was presented to the driver who best exemplifies the characteristics of a true 'professional.' The driver's personality, attitude towards his job, fellow employees, company, the motoring public, etc., are judged by an impartial committee. The winner was 41-year old DON SHAXON, London, a driver for Labatt's Breweries. Shaxon joined Labatts in 1965 after ten years in the Navy and

The Carnarvon Ladies Softball Team

Our girls went into the play offs
With one real far off dream --
That they could somehow defeat
The mighty Minden Team.

This they have accomplished,
Yes this now has been done,
They have now defeated them
Three games, and tied them one.

Then on they went to Gooderham,
To meet those sturdy dames,
They also have defeated them
In three straight forward games.

Three cheers for our Carnarvon girls
We are proud as proud can be
For they have won the Championship
And the coveted trophy.

Bert Harrison.

Hole-in-One

Blairhampton Golf Club was the scene last week of yet another hole-in-one this summer. This now brings the count to four holes-in-one recorded in the County's five golf courses. Bill O'Neill, of Toronto, recorded his hole-in-one on Wednesday morning, using a 4-iron on the 164 yard par 3 sixth hole. The shot was witnessed by his wife Angela.

Libya or Bust

These three young men are off to Benghazi, Libya, to install hydro poles and underground cable, from a power plant near Benghazi to water wells in the heart of the desert, for irrigation purposes.

Ron Robinson Jr., Bob Robinson and Bernie Thorpe signed five months contracts with K-Line Maintenance & Construction Ltd. some two and a half months ago but have been held up by internal strife, religious holidays and lack of equipment until this past Friday when they finally left by plane for Libya.

The operation calls for K-Line Ltd. to install approximately 112 miles of underground cable and 56 miles of hydro poles by the end of the year. K-Line Ltd. was contracted for this huge job by Canadian Westinghouse Ltd.

The three young men in the photo above will be joined by Murray and Barry Simmons of Irondale, Les Burk, Bill Little and Scott Harrison of Minden and Martin Austin of Brady's Lake. These men will then join with other young men from across the Country to form a crew of 45.

Also headed for Benghazi are Sheridan Kellett and Larry McKnight of Minden. Mr. Kellett is taking his holidays plus a week's leave of absence from his Ontario Hydro job to spend a month in Libya. Helping splice cable and training others in this field, while Mr. McKnight will be driving a bulldozer used in burying the cable in four foot trenches.

Here's wishing our local lads a great deal of success in their mission to make a rather poverty stricken country into one of brighter living conditions.

Announce seventh renewal of $100,000 Brunswick World Open

SKOKIE, ILL. (Aug. 28, 1977) ---The $100,000 Brunswick World Open will be held for the seventh consecutive year this fall in the Chicago suburb of Glendale Heights, November 13-19, at Brunswick Northern Bowl. Announcement was made of the prestigious tournament by Brunswick and Joe Antenor, Commissioner of the Professional Bowlers Association (PBA).

As they have been since the inception of the tournament, in 1971, the finals will be seen nationally with NBC-TV cameras zooming in on Saturday, November 19, from 2:00 - 3:30 P.M. (EST) (1:00 - 2:30 P.M. CST).

The 1977 edition, one of the richest on the pro tour each year, will once again be co-sponsored by Brunswick's two divisions with bowling - Brunswick and Brunswick Recreation Centres (BRC).

'In just six short years, the Brunswick World Open has become one of the most popular in bowling, not only here but all over the world,' says Aaron Deskins, President of the Brunswick Division. Bernie Rudo, BRC President, added that more countries than ever before are expected to be represented this year. Eliminations of 20 of the spots in the tournament are underway in countries around the world. The winners of these eliminations will compete in the field that is expected to reach 192 of the top bowlers in the world.

As they have during the past, just about every top professional bowler in the U.S. is expected to compete for the $14,000 first prize. Expected to enter are five previous champions, Don Johnson, only bowler to win two World titles in 1971 and 1972; Jim Godman, 1973 winner; Johnny Petraglia and Dave Davis, who won in 1974 and 1975; and defending champion Gary Dickinson, who captured the 1976 crown with a convincing 247-176 defeat of Ernie Schlegel.

Also expected to be on hand for one of the richest tournaments on the annual PBA tour are the current money leaders Mark Roth, Tommy Hudson and Earl Anthony, all top contenders for 'Bowler of the Year' honors. Anthony, who has recorded two straight $100,000-plus earnings seasons, is bidding for his fourth consecutive 'Bowler of the Year' title. Nick Hondros will again serve as tournament chairman and will work with PBA officials co-ordinating the event. Hondros said a Pro-Am will kick off the rich tournament on Sunday, November 13, and that the event would be open to both men and women entries, with a separate prize for the amateurs. Complete details on the Pro-Am will be announced shortly Hondros added.

DENIED THE PLEASURE

Denied the pleasure of eating candies, ice cream and cookies, actor Donald Davis puts on weight the hard way - by donning a specially designed costume. Davis plays school teacher Andrew Irwin in The Newcomers episode about Scots settling in Canada, to be tele-cast on CBC-TV in March 1978. The seven-part Newcomers series is about people of assorted national origins who settled in this country. Series was commissioned by Imperial Oil to mark its centenary in Canada. Bill Scott, M.P. Victoria - Haliburton has said this week he received numerous inquiries recently concerning the Federally announced Canadian Home Insulation Program slated to commence Sept. 1st. It will make available grants up to $350 to cover two-thirds of the cost of insulation materials on homes built in Ontario prior to 1921.

Although this Program was announced a number of weeks ago, inquiries of both the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation as well as the Federal Department of Energy, Mines and Resources has not turned up too much in the way of specific information. When this Program was first announced on June 27th, it was indicated that a separate organization would be set up under CMHC to administer the Program and that it would be centred in Montreal. Toll free telephone lines are to be made available and public advertising was promised to explain the details to interested individuals.

Inquiries in the last few days however have not provided any further information, as the Department maintains that inquiries will not be accepted until after Sept. 1st. Mr. Scott said he is continuing in his search for answers and when further information is available from the Department the local media will be advised so that the individuals in the Victoria - Haliburton riding can take advantage of this Program.

One of Haliburton County's few natural science camps will soon be closing its doors after another successful productive season. Camp Allsaw, located on Soyer Lake between Minden and Haliburton, has been in operation since 1962 when it was opened by its present owner and director Sam G. Hambly and his wife, Marjorie, of Willowdale. A long-time proponent and leader in the natural science and environmental field, Camp Allsaw offers a full range of recreation, outdoor, education and environment-related programs. Sam proudly boasts a camp staff of well-educated and experienced personnel in the field of outdoor education and conservation. The co-educational camp, comprising 126 acres with a 7 acre island, bills itself as a fitness centre integrated with ecology, conservation, swimming, canoeing, forestry, crafts, orienteering, archery, fishing and campfire singing. And, in many ways, the camp is self-sustaining. Young campers, under expert guidance, grow their own vegetables and fruit with excellent results.

Nothing goes to waste, so to speak, as all of the camp's bio-degradable waste is recycled-some of it used to produce the camp's myriad of earthworms, essential to farming. The camp's farming success is visible in the record crop of huge raspberries and green beans harvested this year. But is the camp a success? Well, if the enthusiasm and knowledge of the campers is a guide by which to grade the camp's effectiveness, then it is an unqualified success. In fact, many of Camp Allsaw's male and female campers go on to further their studies in the natural science field and become experts on this and related subjects. And, eventually a lot of them come back as staff members to the place where it all began - Camp Allsaw.

Fisheries Act changes go into effect September 1, 1977

OTTAWA - Amendments to the Canada Fisheries Act, designed to provide greater protection to the aquatic environment and stiffen the penalties for poaching and other offences, will go into effect Sept. 1, 1977. The amended Act received royal assent July 14.

In announcing the proclamation date today, Fisheries and Environment Minister Romeo LeBlanc said the main objective of the changes to the Act is to preserve or enhance the country's natural environment and its renewable resources, and to crack down harder on people who flaunt fisheries regulations.

'It's been estimated that 2.5 million lobsters are taken illegally in the Maritimes alone each year' said Mr. LeBlanc. 'That represents a loss to the fishing industry of more than $3 million yearly. Loss to the B.C. salmon industry through poaching is estimated even higher.

'With new provisions and heavier penalties under the revised Fisheries Act, we will be in a much better position to deal with the poaching problem. At the same time, we will need the support and cooperation of the fishing industry and the general public to back up the efforts of the federal and provincial authorities.'

Under the amended Act, the Minister of Fisheries may order the forfeiture of any illegally-caught fish, as well as the vessel, gear or vehicle used in the poaching operation after an offender has been convicted by the courts.

Other legislative changes will restrict activities such as landfill or construction in foreshore areas likely to harm fish habitats. This new conservation measure is intended to not only protect the fish, but the eggs, breeding areas and food sources of fish.

Another amendment gives the Minister of Fisheries a broader and more flexible authority to regulate against pollution of waterways by industrial plants, whether existing or proposed.

More effective regulations to deal with emergency pollution problems are to be introduced. A new section of the Act calls for mandatory reporting of spills of oil or other deleterious substances, together with an obligation on the part of those responsible for the spill or the carriers of the polluting substance, to clean up the damage.

Penalties for all the pollution offences have been significantly increased. An offence such as neglecting to provide a fishscreen for an industrial plant's water intake (now carrying a maximum penalty of $20) could bring a $5,000 fine a day, while the more serious pollution offences could result in fines of up to $100,000. Another amendment makes it illegal to interfere with the East Coast seal hunt. The Seal Protection Regulations will be changed to restrict access to the sealing grounds to those who have a need to go there to carry out authorized sealing activities.

'This does not mean that the news media will be barred from attending and reporting on the seal hunt' said Mr. LeBlanc. 'However, it will allow us to keep away those whose only intention is to interfere with sealing operations.'

One of the innovations contained in the amendments would permit the introduction of a 'ticketing' system for minor offences, similar to that used by police for traffic infractions. Maximum fines in such cases would be $100, and would obviate the need for a court appearance.

Commercial fishermen will now have a right of civil action for loss of income from pollution sources other than ships. The Maritime Pollution Claims Fund under the Canada Shipping Act currently provides protection for fishermen who suffer a loss of income due to pollution from ships.

Other changes include the designation of fishery officers as peace officers with powers to serve summonses and warrants, a new definition of 'fishing' to include an attempt to catch fish as well as the actual capture, and authority to extend, if necessary, the restricted area for trawlers beyond the present limit of 12 miles from shore.

POLAR BEAR

URSUS MARITIMUS

One of the earth's largest and most powerful carnivores, the Polar Bear is found along Canada's Arctic coasts from Labrador to Alaska.

In appearance it differs from other bears, having a longer neck and a long, narrow head. Its legs are also much longer.

When disturbed it heads for open water at a rolling gallop at a top speed of about 25mph.

The Polar Bear may surpass the Alaskan grizzly in size, with the maximum recorded weighing 1600 lb. Adult males often weigh between 400-1100 lb. They are the most carnivorous of the bears, their favourite prey being seals and young walrus. In addition to their mainly meat diet, they graze on grasses, mushrooms and berries.

They have, aside from man, no natural enemies, although they may occasionally fall victim to killer whales. They inhabit all the world's Arctic seas and coastlines.
